

Public Health Information Network for Scotland

16th Seminar: Friday 11th September 2015

Glasgow Royal Concert Hall

Programme

9.00 – 9.30 Coffee & Registration

9.30 - 9.35 Welcome
Duncan Booker, Glasgow City Council

9.35 - 10.35 Health inequalities in Scotland: causes and interventions
Why the Scots die younger: an updated synthesis
David Walsh (Glasgow Centre for Population Health) and Gerry McCartney (NHS Health Scotland)

Informing Investment to reduce health Inequalities (III) in Scotland
Cheryl Denny (ISD Scotland) and Andy McAuley (Health Protection Scotland)

Poverty, power and the changing face of Scotland
Jim McCormick, Joseph Rowntree Foundation

10.35 - 11.00 Questions/Discussion

11.00 - 11.30 Coffee Break

11.30 - 12.30 Physical activity and active travel in Scotland and the UK
Active travel in Scotland - trends and challenges
Bruce Whyte, Glasgow Centre for Population Health

Inequalities in physical activity and active travel: could the physical environment have a role to play?
Niamh Shortt, University of Edinburgh/Centre for Research on Environment, Society and Health (CRESH)

Active travel policy ambitions versus delivery realities
Stuart Hay, Living Streets Scotland

12.30 - 1.00 Discussion & Summing up

1.00 pm CLOSE

Please note lunch is unfortunately not provided at this year's seminar

Please note: if you would like to tweet about the event, we are using: #PHINS2015